Numb. 875

The Daily Gazetteer.

MONDAY, APRIL 24. 1738. No 883.

To the Author of the DAILY GAZETTEER.

SIR,

PRAISE is the Tribute of Virtue to diſtinguiſh Merit, and the Honour which worthy Minds owe to eminent Characters; as Calumny and Detraction are the Incenſe which mean Men pay to their own bad Qualities. There has appeared of late ſo much of the latter, that were not ſomething of another kind to be attempted, we might juſtly fear that Malevolence would grow too preſuming, and endeavour to leave the Worthy to the Support alone of their own Conſciouſneſs. I doubt not therefore, but you, Sir, who have always preſerved the proper Diſtinction between Right and Wrong, will give the following a Place in your Paper, as they are Sentiments not ariſing from Flattery, but Truth.

I am, SIR, &c.

An Imitation of HORACE, Ode IX. Lib. IV.

To the Right Hon. Sir R——T W——E.

PAtron of the tuneful Throng,
O! too nice, and too ſevere!
Think not that my Country-Song
Shall diſpleaſe thy Courtly Ear.

Choſen Strains I proudly bring,
Which the Muſes, ſacred Choir!
When they Gods and Heroes ſing,
Dictate to th' harmonious Lyre.

Patient HOMER, Princely Bard!
Juſt Precedence ſtill maintains;
With ſacred Rapture ſtill are heard
Theban PINDAR's lofty Strains.

All the old triumphant Song,
Which, when hated Tyrants fell,
Great ALCÆUS boldly ſung,
Warms, inſtructs, and pleaſes well.

Me has Time's all-darkning Shade
In obſcure Oblivion caſt,
What ANACREON laugh'd and play'd;
Gay ANACREON, drunken Prieſt!

Gentle SAPPHO, loveſick Muſe,
Warms the Heart with amorous Fire;
Still her tendereſt Notes infuſe
Melting Rapture, ſoft Deſire.

Courteous HELEN, young and gay,
By a painted Foplin won,
Went not firſt, frail Nymph, aſtray,
Fondly pleas'd to be undone.

Nor young TEUCER's ſlaught'ring Bow,
Nor bold HECTOR's dreadful Sword,
Alone the Terror of the Foe,
Sow'd the Field with hoſtile Blood.

Many valiant Chiefs of old
Greatly liv'd and dy'd, before
AGAMEMNON, Græcian bold,
Wag'd, Ten Years, the famous War.

But their Names, unſung, unwept,
Unrecorded, loſt and gone,
Long in endleſs Night have ſlept,
And ſhall now no more be known.

Virtue, which the Poet's Care
Has not well conſign'd to Fame,
Lies, as in the Sepulcre
Some old King, without a Name.

But, O WALPOLE, great and free,
While my tuneful Songs are read,
Old, forgetful Time on Thee
Dark Oblivion ne'er ſhall ſpread.

When the deep-cut Notes ſhall fade
On the mouldring Parian Stone,
And on the Braſs no more be read
The periſhing Inſcription;

Forgotten all thy Enemies,
Envious ——'s laſting Spite,
And ——'s memorable Lies,
Loſt and ſunk in Stygean Night:

Still thy Labour and thy Care,
What for Britain thou haſt done,
In full Luſtre ſhall appear,
And out-ſhine th' unclouded Sun.

Large thy Mind, and not untry'd
At the wavering Helm to ſtand,
And, thro' the calm, or raging Tide,
Safe conduct the Ship to Land.

Foe to each unmanly Fraud,
Thee Two Monarchs, juſt and wiſe,
Truſted, for the Publick-Good,
With their open Treaſuries.

We falſely call the Rich Man Great;
He is only ſo that knows,
His plentiful or ſmall Eſtate
Wiſely to enjoy and uſe.

He in Wealth, or Poverty,
Fortune's Pow'r alike defies:
And Falſhood and Diſhoneſty,
More than Death abhors and flies.

Flies not Death; but meets it brave,
When the Suffering, ſo ſevere,
May from dreadful Bondage ſave,
Clients, Friends, or Country dear.

This the Sovereign Man, compleat;
Hero; Patriot; glorious; free;
Rich, and wiſe; and fair, and great;
Generous WALPOLE, Thou art He.

The laſt Mail from Holland brought theſe farther Particulars relating to the Plot diſcovered in Tranſilvania, the Surrender of Uſitza, and the Match between the Prince of Saxe Hilburghauſen and the Princeſs of Soiſſons.

Extract of a Letter from Hermanſtadt in Tranſilvania of April 4. N. S.

'A Dangerous Conſpiracy has been form'd againſt us in Favour of the Rebel Ragotski, which 'might have render'd the Eaſter Holidays very diſagreeable to us, if the Divine Providence had not 'diſcovered it in time. The chief Conſpirators, who 'lived ſome of them in the Country, and others in 'Towns, were arreſted on the 29th ult. to the Number of 15, almoſt all at the ſame Hour. That 'Morning at Day break, the Baron John Lazar was 'taken out of his Bed, and at 5 o'Clock the Guards 'were reinforced by 3 Companies of regular Forces: 'Others were arreſted at Carlsbourg and elſewhere, 'who 'tis ſaid had already engag'd above 1000 Men, 'and were engaging more every Day with a Deſign 'to join the Rebel Ragotski, who was to enter this 'Country thro' the Defiles of Hazeg. The 15 Perſons above-mentioned are all Calviniſts, tho' a Poiſh Canon is alſo in the Conſpiracy; and 'tis expected that the Number of Priſoners will ſoon be 'augmented. They had their Cabals in the Country, 'which were firſt diſcovered by a Peaſant.'

A Letter from Vienna, which makes mention of the Capitulation of Uſitza, ſays, that Captain Leſner, with his little Gariſon, march'd out with 2 ſmall Pieces of Cannon, Colours flying and Match lighted, and was conducted ſafe to Sabatſch; and that Capt. Leſner, when ſummoned to ſurrender at Diſcretion, having declared that he would chuſe rather to ſet Fire to his Magazine of Powder, and blow up himſelf and Gariſon with the Place into the Air; the Baſhaw finding by all Appearances, at and after his ſaid Declaration, that he was reſolved to be as good as his Word, ſent him Word in about 2 Hours time, that in Conſideration of his Bravery, he would grant him the Capitulation he deſired. 'Tis ſaid this Siege has coſt the Infidels near 3000 Men; for they crept up Precipices and ſteep Rocks more than once, to the very Battlements of the Walls, from whence they were puſh'd headlong to the Bottom, after the Loſs of their Fingers or Hands; and they would have loſt more Men if the Gariſon had not been deſtitute of Water, and had not been too much weaken'd by ſo long and obſtinate a Siege.

The Prince of Saxe Hilburghauſen no ſooner arrived at Vienna from his Government of Comorra, but he chang'd his Cloaths and went to Court, where he was received with very great Diſtinction; and from thence he repaired to the Princeſs Victoria of Soiſſons, his future Spouſe. This Marriage has been two Years in Treaty, by reaſon of the great Obſtacles that were form'd to thwart it. The Princeſs is ſet out for her Seat at Hoff in Hungary, and was to be followed thither in a Day or two by the Prince, for the Celebration of their Marriage.

LONDON.

A great Number of People having on the 14th Inſtant in the Evening, aſſembled themſelves in the City of Briſtol, in a riotous and tumultuous Manner, the Magiſtrates of the ſaid City cauſed the Proclamation for preventing Tumults to be read, whereupon they diſperſed at that Time, but aſſembled again the next Morning in the ſame riotous Manner: And an anonymous Letter being on the 18th Inſtant, taken up in the Court of the Dwelling Houſe of Nathaniel Day, Eſq; Mayor of that City, threatning him with Miſchief, in caſe he ſhould moleſt any Perſon on Account of the ſaid Riots: His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the ſeveral Crimes above-mentioned, or either of them, has been pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any of the ſaid Offenders that ſhall diſcover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices in the ſaid Riots, or in writing, ſending, or dropping the Threatning Letter aforeſaid, ſo that they or any of them be apprehended and convicted thereof.

The Corporation have offered a Reward of Ten Pounds to any Perſon who ſhall diſcover any of the Rioters, and 50l. to the Perſon who ſhall diſcover any one concerned in writing or throwing the ſaid Letter into the Court aforeſaid, the Mayor likewiſe has promiſed 50l. more to the Perſon making ſuch Diſcovery; which Rewards are to be paid on the Conviction of the Offender.

The ſaid Letter was without Date or Name, directed to the Right Worſhipful Nath. Day, Eſq; Mayor, and addreſſed in the Words following, viz.

'May it pleaſe your buſie Worſhip, to be ſo kind 'not to trouble yourſelf about what you call a Riot 'on the Wear as much as you do; if your Worſhip 'doth moleſt any Perſon, we that did break the Windows of that wicked Creature's Houſe, will certainly 'do you the ſame Kindneſs and ſomething worſe the 'firſt Opportunity, we doth not queſtion will be in a 'little Time: We think it Juſtice to ſerve her ſo, 'and your Worſhip worſe, if you doth not hold your 'Peace.

'And, I pray, accuſe none wrongfully; if you 'doth, it ſhall be——Fire to you.'

An Incendiary Letter, dated at Laugharne, the 7th of March laſt paſt, having been ſent by the Poſt directed to John Philipps of Kilgetty, Eſq; Ca[illegible]

then, threatning, That in Case he stood Candidate for Common-Council-man of Carmarthen, he should not enjoy it a Year in Peace, and warning him to take Care lest his Brains be knock'd out, his Blood licked by Dogs, his House set on Fire, and his Friends murthered: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Author or Authors thereof, has been pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they or any of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And as a further Encouragement, the said John Philipps hath promised a Reward of Fifty Pounds; the Mayor and Common-Council of the County Borough of Carmarthen, a Reward of Thirty Pounds, and the Rev. M. Anthony Rudd, of Carmarthen, a Reward of Twenty Pounds; to be severally paid to the Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses, whether occasion'd by too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Pollutio sui, or any other Cause whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain, since they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infeeble the whole Nervous System, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorsalis, or Consumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Consumption, which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such, therefore, who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old or Stubborn Gleets, Seminal Effusions, Involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetis, Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe, speedy Cure, which they most assuredly may, by taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent Balsamick Restrictive Electuary, now published for a general Good, after having for many Years been experienc'd never once to fail perfectly curing the most Stubborn Gleets known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as also all other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels, and Urinary Passages, whichit almost instantly cures, bringing to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to their natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent Balsamick Restrictive Electuary is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is a wonderful Restorative in all Weaknesses and Decays of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly strengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels to an immense degree, insomuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Persons fatigu'd with Gleets or Seminal Weaknesses of any Sort, or Weaknesses of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it so very effectual, that they will most agreeably surprised at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been tried in vain; too much cannot be said in it, and all who ever took it for any of the above-mention'd Purposes have readily declared.

The Price is but 6 s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Efficacy one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten times as much, and by the Author's special Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. Rafter's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Book of Instructions, which whomsoever carefully reads will perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with succeeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the Foul Disease is intirely eradicated or not.

Note, Ask only for a 6 s. Pot of Baltamick Electuary.
